Colloquium

Mapping Critical Heritage

The colloquium has been conceived as a platform for exchange and dialogue between members of the Center for Critical Studies in Architecture and the ▷ Cultural Landscape Research Group at the Politécnica de Madrid (GIPC). It is open to the public and welcomes students, academics, as well as people with an interest in architectural history, cultural landscape and heritage studies.

This event is part of a number of joint activities taking place in Frankfurt and Darmstadt. It includes presentations, meetings, conversations and visits to partner institutions.
